

...sounds like you, us a call:

medicaid was cut off because they made too much money, but I still pay my medical bills.”

orried I am going to lose my house
eclosure or a tax sale.”

urned down for disability benefits.”

ddlord won't fix my leaky toilet, but ssed the rent again, and we can't it.”

someone to help make medical ons if I get sick.”

me healthcare aide's hours were
it I can't be alone.”

usband died, but I was denied his enefits.”

ot receiving the care I need at my
g home.”

osing my housing voucher.”

ay I was overpaid Social Security, ow I owe money to the Social ty Administration.”

CHAMPIONING THE DIGNITY AND RIGHTS OF SENIORS IN WASHINGTON, DC

Legal Counsel for the Elderly relies on and greatly appreciates financial contributions to assist us in carrying out our work. LCE is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, so contributions are tax deductible to the fullest extent of the law. To make a gift using our secure online donation form, visit aarp.org/LCE. Or, you can send a check made payable to “Legal Counsel for the Elderly” to 601 E Street, NW, Washington, DC 20049.

Legal Counsel for the Elderly is a proud affiliate of AARP. LCE also receives generous support from the DC Department of Aging and Community Living, the DC Department of Housing and Community Development, the Mayor's Office on Latino Affairs, the U.S. Administration on Aging, and several private foundations, corporations, law firms, and individuals.

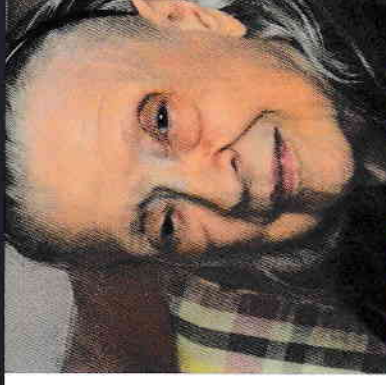

Supported in part by

Legal Counsel for the Elderly
601 E Street, NW
Washington, DC 20049

202-434-2120 | 202-434-6595 fax

aarp.org/lce

LEGAL COUNSEL
for the ELDERLY

CHAMPIONING THE
DIGNITY AND RIGHTS OF SENIORS IN WASHINGTON, DC

LEGAL COUNSEL
for the
ELDERLY

counsel for the Elderly provides legal and social work services to DC residents 60 and older.

the first step to finding a solution to a legal issue is to call the LCE Hotline at 202-434-2120.

The Hotline is open between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

For more information in español, visit the LGBTQ community. For more information, or to complete an application, visit aarp.org/LCE.

in DC  @lceindc

We can help you...

- Avoid eviction, fight illegal rent increases and housing code violations;
- Avoid foreclosure and tax sales;
- Fight consumer fraud and financial abuse;
- Prepare wills, financial and health powers of attorney; and
- Obtain the public benefits you deserve: Social Security, SNAP, Medicaid and Medicare, and Veterans benefits.

Additional Services

The Office of the DC Long-Term Care Ombudsman (DCLTCO) is an important part of Legal Counsel for the Elderly. The Ombudsman is an advocate and resource for persons who reside in long-term care facilities such as nursing homes, assisted living and community residence facilities, and those receiving care in their homes through the Elder and Persons with Physical Disabilities (EPD) Medicaid Waiver. The Ombudsman works to resolve residents' concerns in order to protect and enhance their health, safety, welfare and rights. There are no age limitations to Ombudsman services. Call 202-434-2190, for more information.

The Senior Medicare Patrol office empowers and assists Medicare beneficiaries, their families, and caregivers to prevent, detect, and report health care fraud, errors, and abuse through outreach, counseling, and education.

LCE's Homebound Elderly Project (Project HELP) provides critically important legal assistance and advocacy to homebound seniors.

LCE's Self Help Office (SHO) has six community-based locations to help seniors write letters, complete applications to obtain certain benefits, prepare complaint forms, and much more. See the LCE website for the most current locations.

LCE's Schedule H Program assists seniors who do not need to file a complete tax return, apply for the DC Schedule H property tax credit of up to $1,000.

